THE GREENBACKERS.

An Address to the People.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The following address was issued by the Greenback members-elect at their meeting today.

To the People of the United States: The National Greenback Representatives elected to the Forty-sixth Congress, feeling the grave responsibility imposed upon them, have met in consultation and deem it proper to advise you of the results. The need of a more perfect organization engaged our serious attention. As against labor and capital invested in productive and commercial enterprises, the money loaning interest is elaborately and thoroughly organized. The gigantic power embraces the National administration and legislature, the machinery and leadership of Republican and Democratic parties, and more than 200 National banks, forming a banking system yet in the infancy of its power whose operation has transferred the control of issuing and regulating the volume of paper money from the Government, where the Constitution vests it, to these corporations, whose directors are not responsible to the people. Back of this organization, inspiring and controlling it, is arrayed the colossal money power of Europe. It has controlled the legislative and executive officers, largely subsidized the press and endangered the purity of the judiciary. By means of usury and the appreciation of value of money by contracting, it has absorbed the accumulated wealth of the nation and gained a mortgage upon the productive power of the future. The indebtedness of the people—private, corporate, municipal, state and national—is more than the entire property of the country would bring in money. This indebtedness expresses immense capital gained by money brokers. Through the terrible pressure of its annual interest, productive and commercial energy have been paralyzed and the masses of our people have been plunged into a condition of increasing poverty, want and misery, which is embittering them to a degree perilous to the peace of society and the stability of our Government.

The agents of the money power have sought to blind the people to its spoliations by charging their distress to their extravagance, by a false clamor for "honest money," and by the promise of speedy relief through the resumption of specie payments. What they call resumption has come, but the distress intensifies and the prospects under their policy darkens. We have reached the dread crisis.

THE MISSION OF THE NEW PARTY.

It is the mission of our party to meet this crisis and avert the measureless ruin it threatens. To do this we must overthrow the powerful and entrenched banking system, and restore to the Government, where the fundamental law places it, the sole power to issue money, regulate its value and determine its volume. We must stop the increase of interest-bearing indebtedness as speedily as possible, in accord with the letter of the original contract, cancel that which has accrued. We must secure a volume of full legal tender money equal to the demands of prosperous productive enterprise. Ours is a gigantic task. Only by the united efforts of those who suffer can we accomplish it. We are fully convinced that a separation from the old parties, whose leaders, machinery and press are mostly allied with money power, is demanded. Impelled by this conviction we have resolved to act together in organizing the next House of Congress that we may the better secure such legislation as will accomplish the desired result. We are assured that enough members entertaining our views have been elected to hold the balance of power. We propose to wield that power for the sole purpose of embodying our principles in law.

We call upon you to unite, in precinct, city, town, county, congressional district and state organizations for the same ends. We also invite all the Greenback and Labor clubs, by whomsoever organized or chartered, to place themselves in communication with their respective county and state organizations, and through them, with the headquarters of the National Executive Committee at Washington, D. C. We earnestly caution the suffering against all who seek to inspire to disloyal acts, or even threats. Treason would be madness, because the ballot is in our hands. The Administration is what the votes of the people have made it, and within two years they can change it by the same peaceful progress. We seek relief only through the ballot. The future is full of hope, our party has gained more than a million of votes within the last year, and we are assured from all parts of the nation that the momentum which gave us that unparalleled advance is increasing so as to make success in 1880 certain. Therefore let not the suffering yield nor the justly indignant resort to violence.

(Signed) GILBERT DE LA MATYR,
Chairman of the Committee on Address.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

The Prospects of an Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Senator Thurman informed a friend today that he had no doubt an extra session of Congress would take place. He did not see how it could be avoided. Senator Windom, chairman of the Senate appropriations committee, declared that the outlook for finishing up the appropriation bills was discouraging in the extreme. He was engaged all day in considering the sundry civil bill, and thinks it may be ready to be reported to the Senate tomorrow or Friday. Many amendments will be made. The general opinion among Senators is that the differences between the two Houses on the legislative bill and the Senate amendments to the deficiency bill, touching the pay of United States Marshals, which was the subject of the acrimonious debate in the Senate today, are irreconcilable, and unless one or the other yields, both bills will fail.

THE PERSISTENT WAR IN FEDERAL ELECTION LAWS.

The Democratic Senators today bitterly opposed the amendment in the deficiency bill appropriating $250,000 to defray the expenses of criminal prosecutions for violations of the federal election laws. Messrs. Thurman, Bayard, Voorhees, Saulsbury, Kernan and other Senators made vehement speeches and charged that this money was to be used as a corruption fund to carry elections for the Republican party. The bill was passed by a strict party vote, but the attitude of the Democratic Senators renders it certain that the House will resist this appropriation to the end, and unless the Republicans recede from this amendment the bill will fail. The Democrats appear to entertain a deep-rooted horror of the presence of the United States marshals at Congressional polls, and are determined to get rid of these officials at any cost.

The Expected Veto.

The veto of the chinese bill is expected on Friday or Saturday. Among other things it will refer to the fact of pending negotiations with the Chinese Emperor through his embassy, as a reason for no present action by Congress.

REVENUE BILL AGREEMENT.

The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The conference committee on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the internal revenue bill have agreed and will submit their report some time today. The tax on matches is retained. All savings banks and banking institutions, except national banks, are relieved from taxation.

The Senate Appropriation Committee have nearly completed the sundry civil appropriation bill. They have stricken out the House amendment consolidating surveys, and have added several thousand dollars to the bill.

Speaker Randall is of opinion that all the appropriation bills will pass. Enough Republicans, he says, will back down to insure the passage of the legislative bill, which contains political riders. There will be no backing down on the part of the Democrats in the House.

THE PENSION ARREARS LAW.

A Damaging Circular.—Pension Agents Suspended.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A Washington special says a circular having been addressed to pensioners who are to be benefited by the passage of the Arrears bill, urging them to subscribe liberally to pay some person in Washington for "educating" Congressmen, newspaper men and officials so that the bill was passed, and the circular promising agents 15 per cent. of all subscriptions, the Commissioner of Pensions thought it nothing but a confidence game, and so reported to the Secretary of the Interior. The Tribune says the latter has ordered the suspension of the following named Pension Claim Agents, all of whom are signers of the circular: R. A. Denmiok, T. W. Tallmadge, L. Lowe, George Bancroft, Seth Johnson and George Ward, constituting the firm of George Bancroft & Co., L. Bingham, constituting the firm of L. Bingham & Co., J. M. McMillan and W. T. Birch, constituting the firm of McMillan & Birch, Wm. Conrad and Richard McAllister, constituting the firm of Wm. Conrad & Co., R. S. Lacy and A. P. Lacy, constituting the firm of R. S. & A. P. Lacy, R. W. Walker, E. P. Halsted and L. H. Bursley.

THE PRESS SNUB AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Times' Washington special says of the White House reception last night: "Every class of society in Washington, and every profession, trade and calling save the profession of journalism, was well represented. For the first time in the history of the county, newspaper representatives of all degrees were excluded from a public reception at the White House. A number of lady correspondents, however, who were directed by their papers to give descriptions of the dresses, were not a little amazed to find there was "no thoroughfare" for them beyond the hallway filled with lackeys and footmen. One or two of these ladies who attempted to enter under the escort of families of members of Congress were rudely stopped at the door."

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Drift ice is getting heavy and troublesome to sailing craft in Hell Gate, about Whitestone, East River.

Dr. McLean had his hat cut to pieces and his gloves stolen, and a reporter was stoned and threatened with murder by the cowardly drunkards and loafers around Fleischmann's swill-milk stables, yesterday afternoon. The deputy sheriffs in charge were too cowardly and too much identified with the mob to dare defend the reporter. The latter was finally rescued by a gentleman treating the dirty crowd. The sheriff today will put new men in charge. The cows show no particular improvement.

Mardi Gras closed the carnival at Gilmore's Garden, last night, with a great crowd and harmless hilarity.

BEQUEST TO A TAUNTON, MASS., CHURCH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Rev. Charles H. Brigham, who was buried in Greenwood last week, gives his body to the Congregational Church of Taunton, Mass., to be buried in their church-yard, and deeds $800 for a monument and $200 to keep it in repair; to the American Unitarian Association he gives the silver plate communion ware given to him by the members of the First Congregational Society of Taunton, and to that society he gives the marble font which its members presented to him in 1876.

AUCTION SALE OF COAL.

At an auction sale of Scranton coal today 100,000 tons were sold as follows: 7000 tons chesnut, $2.40, $2.42½ and $2.45; 26,000 grate, $2.25, $2.27½ and $2.30; 600 steamboat, $2.25; 20,000 egg, $2.25, $2.27½ and $2.30; 42,000 stove, $2.62½, $2.65 and $2.67½. There was a large attendance and bidding was spirited. The result shows a decline in all grades except chestnut of 5 and 15 cents per ton.

A Loan for Quebec.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—Private information received here this morning states that Hon. Mr. Joly, Premier of the Province of Quebec, has obtained a loan of $6,000,000 in New York on very favorable terms—more favorable, in fact, than could be made in England.

RETURNING REASON.

The Trinity Students Apologize and Return to their Studies.

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 26.—The difficulty between the faculty and students at Trinity College is at an end. The students held a meeting this afternoon and passed the following resolution:

That the students of Trinity College in this meeting assembled having reflected upon their action in singing the song at their meeting on Saturday last, the 22d of February, without having first submitted the words of the same song to the Professor of English Literature, after such action had been prohibited by the faculty of the college, are now conscious and do hereby declare and frankly acknowledge that their said action was a disregard of their obligation to obey the faculty, and in this way was a violation of their duty as members of the College.

That a copy of the resolutions, attested by the signature of the President and Secretary of this meeting, be at once communicated to the President of the faculty.

JAMES D. CARPENTER,
President.

HOFFMAN MILLER, Secretary.

The faculty met, subsequently, and passed the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS—The students of the College have, by a resolution passed at a meeting held by them this day, communicated to us a declaration and acknowledgment that they violated their duty in disobeying the prohibition regarding the submission of the songs to be sung at the celebration on Washington's birthday; therefore,

Be it Resolved by us, the faculty of the College, that the offence thus publicly admitted by the students is hereby fully condoned, and permission is hereby granted to the students who were required to leave the College on Monday last, to return and resume their places as members of the College in all respects as if the offence had not been committed.

The students have resumed their work.

EXECUTION.

Charles Peace, executed at Leeds, yesterday, for the murder of Engineer Dysan, confessed that he murdered the policeman at Manchester, in 1876, for which Habron was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

FIRE IN MANCHESTER.

A fire on Market street, Manchester, today, destroyed half a million dollars' worth of property.

THE ZULU WAR.

An estimate for a million and a half of pounds for the Zulu war will be submitted to Parliament.

A SEVERE STORM IN ITALY.

Vesuvius Casting up Ashes.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—A heavy storm prevailed yesterday throughout Italy. A dispatch from Rome reports that the sea inundated a large portion of Venice. In the Piazza San Marco, the water was thirty inches deep.

The coast from Genoa to Naples is strewn with wrecks. Parma, Piacenza, Milan and Florence were damaged by the storm.

The English steamer Sillistria has been wrecked at Salerno, and eighteen persons drowned.

There has been an eruption of ashes from Mount Versuvius.

Labor Troubles in England.

PRESTON, Feb. 25.—The depression in the cotton trade has increased, Messrs. Healy & Co. have given notice that they must stop their 680 looms within a fortnight unless trade improves. This involves the discharge of from two to three hundred hands.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—All accounts agree as to the utter collapse of the strike of coalheavers and dock-laborers at Liverpool.

An action has been begun for the compulsory winding up of the North Staffordshire Colliery Company. It is said that another large limited company near Hanley is about to voluntarily wind up its business.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

JANUARY SESSION AT PROVIDENCE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 26.

SENATE.

Mr. Bourn, of Bristol, called from the table the bill for an act to abolish the tribal authority of the Narragansett Tribe of Indians, and had the same referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

House substitute for Senate bill for an act in amendment of Chapter 603 of the Public Laws, in relation to the removal of female prisoners from the State Prison to the State Workhouse, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The Senate then adjourned to Thursday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Fay, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably Senate resolution making an appropriation of $1500, for furniture for the State Normal School. Passed in concurrence.

Mr. Manchester, of Tiverton, presented petition of Peter Cook and others for the passage of an act to abolish the office of Trial Justice in the town of Tiverton. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Congdon, of East Greenwich, called up Senate resolution protesting against the passage by Congress of the bill restricting Chinese immigration, and moved its passage in concurrence.

Mr. Fay of Newport, moved to amend so as to provide that the Secretary of State shall send a copy of the resolutions to the President of the United States.

The question was then taken on the motion to make the resolutions the special order for tomorrow, and it was lost by a vote of 22 yeas to 33 nays.

Mr. Fay then moved to amend so as to provide that the Secretary of State shall also send a copy of the resolutions to the President, by telegraph.

Mr. Fay said this substitute would not meet the entire case. Supposing the President should veto the bill, our Senators and Representatives will have to vote upon it again.

Mr. Watson, of Portsmouth, said he was in favor of some restraint upon this immigration, but he thought this action of Congress is too sweeping. He thought a tax upon the Chinese when they arrive, to go to the support of the government, would restrict the immigration.

The question was then taken on Mr. Fay's amendment, and the House refused to adopt it by a vote of 18 yeas to 20 nays. Mr. Cooke's substitute was lost without a division.

The motion was then made that the resolutions pass in concurrence.

Mr. Newell and several others moved to adjourn, which motion was carried by a vote of 29 yeas to 27 nays.

PERSONALS.

.....The widow of Charles Dickens is dangerously ill.

.....Mrs. Bayard Taylor and Miss Taylor were to sail from Hamburg on the 19th inst., by the steamer Herder, for New York.

.....Ex-President MacMahon is suffering from ophthalmia, which is said to be complicated with serious general symtpoms.

.....William Waterhorn, aged 102, who lives near Grand Rapids, Mich., drove to that city a few days since and purchased a load of oats.

.....There is a rumor that Secretary Schurz is engaged to marry one of the daughters of a highly-placed officer of the Government.

.....Mr. August Belmont, Jr., and Mr. Harry Oelrichs have gone to Texas, to select ponies for the polo matches already planned for next summer.

.....At Saturday's reception Mrs. Hayes wore white silk, with drapings of white striped gauze. A white camellia and ivory comb was worn in her hair.

.....Mr. C. P. Edison has sailed for Liverpool on the Algeria to take out from the Menlo Park workhouse some new electrical apparatus to be used in the illustration of Professor Tyndall's coming lecture before the Victoria Institute.

.....The London Standard says that the French prince imperial has sailed for Cape Town. He intends to join as a volunteer the column likely to have the sharpest fighting, his earnest petition for a commission in the British Army having been rejected. He will be permitted to join the staff of the Royal Artillery.

.....The late Joseph Gillot, the noted steel pen manufacturer, after he became very rich, had a mania for collecting old Italian instruments, and, although he knew nothing whatever about music, he became the owner of over 500 violins and violoncellos, nearly all of which were constructed by makers of repute, and a large proportion of them by the great artists of Cremona. After his death they were found lying in dusty heaps or thrust away in boxes—a thing to make a musician tear his hair.

.....The general meeting of the American Social Science Association for 1879 will be held at Saratoga from the 9th to the 13th of September. The Committee of Arrangements are President Gilman of Baltimore, Professor Wayland, of New Haven, Colonel Higginson of Cambridge, Horace White of New York, and the acting secretary, Mr. Sanborn. Dorman B. Eaton of New York, has been chosen a vice president of the association in place of Isaac Sherman, resigned, and Professor Maria Mitchell of Vassar College, has been elected a member of the department of education.

SHE HAD A MALE VOICE.—Mademoiselle B—— is a pretty brunette; she is very elegant and fragile, but has, alas! one misfortune to trouble her. She is a Spaniard by birth, and her voice has the masculine tone so peculiar to the beauties of Catholic Spain. It was eve, and she was walking along the Boulevards just behind a marrel of grandeur in military uniform; a blind beggar stopped across and intercepted their progress, asking for alms. She withdrew her elegantly gloved hand from her muff, opened her purse, and slipped some coppers into the vagrant's outstretched palm, accompanying the gift with a few suitable words of kindness spoken as softly and as amiably as possible. The blind man felt, listened, and replied in a voice choked with emotion, "Thank you, Colonel!"

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE TRUE WAY TO INVIGORATE.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels, and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using in German, French, or English. The Newport Daily News and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon, (Sundays excepted,) at the News building, 18 Church street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning, and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, the latest markets, and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 00 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the WHOLE YEAR is paid STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra, and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1879.

The will of the widow of Benjamin Nathan was filed in New York yesterday. The estate is valued at $2,000,000.

A terrible storm raged yesterday on the southern coast of Europe. Cities were inundated and the coast strewn with wrecks.

Advertisers who wish to reach the farmers in the adjoining towns should hand in their favors early for tomorrow's Newport Journal.

Don Piatt got into a row with Wm. McGarrahan at Washington yesterday and was badly pummelled about the head. Don has deserved a whipping for a long time, and we are not sure but McGarrahan does also.

Gen. Butler is credited with the design of capturing the next Republican state convention in Massachusetts. Failing in that, he will attempt a repetition of his last year's game with the Democratic convention. His agents are already actively at work in securing control of the town committees of both parties.

The Trinity College "rebellion" is ended. The students have surrendered. They have adopted a resolution in which they acknowledge their disobedience. The faculty, in turn, have declared their satisfaction with this acknowledgment, and pronounce the offence condoned. The boys that were dismissed have been reinstated, and peace prevails.

The attempt to oust Hamburg Massacre Butler from the Senate and install Corbin was a very foolish affair. The question as to which was entitled to the seat should have been settled at the beginning and not at this late day. The Republicans voted Butler in in the first place and no new light has been shed on the subject. Either they were very foolish to admit him then or are very foolish to try to turn him out now.

It look as if there might be an extra session of Congress after all the efforts to prevent it. The Democrats will not pass the necessary appropriation bills unless the Republicans consent to the addition of partisan legislation which they stubbornly refuse. At the extra session the Democrats will have it all their own way, and don't care whether they win now or then in regard to disputed points. And so the country suffers while the politicians wrangle.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald furnishes that journal with what he claims to be the chief points of the forthcoming majority report of the Potter committee. It is asserted that the evidence discloses that the electoral votes of both Florida and Louisiana were wrongfully, illegally and fraudulently cast for the Republicans; that, in short, fraud and forgery principally characterized the elections in those states. All of which we knew before. The ciphers will be passed over so lightly that the Tilden frauds are kept in the back ground.

At Indianapolis is a woman's prison which is managed in every department by women. The wife of ex-Governor Hendricks is on the Board of Managers, and the superintendent is a Quakeress, Sarah Smith. All accounts agree that it is one of the most admirably-managed institutions in the country, so well managed in fact that Governor Williams, in a late report to the Legislature, says that these ladies have, "as shown by their two reports, trained the inmates of the institution to habits of industry, practiced rigid economy in every department and kept their expenditures within the appropriations." This is much more interesting because of the popular idea that women do not understand anything about finances. In this case it is emphatically shown that they have decided tact and ability in this direction, for they were allowed less money than was given on the same basis for the conduct of the men's prison.

Whatever may be said of President Hayes as wanting in backbone while coming in contact with the enemy, it must be confessed that Mrs. Hayes has principles and lives up to them. A woman of deep religious convictions she has set herself against the use of wine and other liquors in the White House while she is mistress. On one or two occasions when the foreign ambassadors were present, Secretary Evarts has succeeded in getting liquors on the tables and it was thought, would do so again. But Mrs. Hayes has proved too much for all the diplomats, and the late grand entertainment, one of the most select ever held at Washington, was free from everything that intoxicates. At the close Speaker Randall and several other guests occupying most prominent positions congratulated her on her success in carrying out her convictions, and yet affording one of the most enjoyable receptions ever given at the Capital.

Ex-Senator Willard Warner, of Alabama, is a carpet-bagger. He is not, however, a disreputable carpet-bagger. He went South fifteen years ago and represents an investment of $225,000 in an iron furnace. In 1872 he went into the liberal Republican movement and supported Mr. Greeley for president. Mr. Warner may be fairly supposed to be acquainted with the state of public sentiment in the south. In a recent interview with a representative of the New York Tribune, Mr. Warner gives it as his opinion that the Republicans cannot carry a single southern state in 1880. He says that there are many congressional districts in the South that are overwhelmingly republican, but are carried for the Democrats by false returns. In all his experience he has never yet met a negro who was a Democrat, and he does not believe that any considerable number of the colored voters support the Democratic ticket. He thinks that Tilden will not develop much strength in the South as a candidate for president in 1880. Georgia he reports as solid against Tilden. He reports Mr. Adams, of Georgia, a Democratic candidate for clerk of the house two years ago, as saying that the struggle for the Democratic nomination in 1880 would be between Thurman, Randall and Hancock, and thinks that if Tilden cannot secure the nomination for himself he will throw his influence for Randall. In Mr. Warner's opinion the strongest ticket for the Democracy would be Hancock for president and Morrison, of Illinois, for vice-president. Notwithstanding his belief that the South will be solid for the Democracy in 1880, Mr. Warner is of the opinion that the republicans will elect the next president. As he expresses it, "a Democratic victory in 1880 would be going back into the swamp and staying there for a generation."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

"Alanton Marble—hard name that, half shot-gun, half chimney-piece," says the Irish World.

The Investigator doesn't mind being called "infidel," but it does object to having Thomas Paine's first name abbreviated.

The N. Y. Dry Goods Reporter says it is rumored that the large shipments of domestic goods to the Chinese market will at once be stopped if the Anti-Immigration bill becomes a law.

Dr. I. I. Hayes and Henry M. Stanley will accompany James Gordon Bennett to San Francisco in May to assist him in the final preparations for the Jeannette's expedition to the Arctic sea.

It is said that Rev. Dr. Duryea of New York is to be called to the Central Congregational Church of Boston. This is the church that tried to secure the services of Rev. Dr. Foss of Westoyan University.

The Newport News comes out for Grant, and thinks no other Republican could poll so many votes in Rhode Island.—[Boston Herald.

The old question, which shall rule, faculty or students? is the one they are investigating at Trinity College this week.—[Boston Herald.

Ike Kalloch's San Francisco congregation thinks the anti-Chinese bill a measure in the interest of "Christian civilization." That is a new way for him to look at things.—[Boston Herald.

The gift of exasperating those whom he dislikes was developed in the New York Senator young, and he has cultivated it to a very high degree; he can convey more intense animosity by a slur or a sneer than most men by a flood of rhetorical invective. —[Advertiser.

Mr. Garfield was not far from the truth in stating that all the great business interests of the country, all wise business men were saying, "Let the currency laws alone; let business recover itself on the basis that we now have." He believed that it would have been a great blessing at any time within the last five years if Congress had passed the appropriation bills and gone home, even to the neglect of other important legislation, if it had kept its hands from tinkering with the currency and business of the country. But this does not fully meet the case. There are bars upon commerce and restrictions upon trade which it is of first importance to have removed. A sound and satisfactory currency is indispensable to prosperity, but cannot make it. Our odious tariff laws are what bind us.—[Boston Post.

Now it has been decided that the Chinese must go, the question comes naturally up; who next? This country is a conglomeration of settlers from every part of the world. Some nationalities are represented by large others by small numbers. The Irish claim to be about one third of the population and hence they may be considered safe. But the Swedes, Swiss and Norwegians are few comparatively, and rather clannish. Why should not they be driven out? They will persist in settling together; in building their own meeting houses; in reading their own books; in teaching their children their native language. Why should they not be sent adrift, as well as the Chinese? Then there are very many Germans in the Republic. They are very numerous in Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and New York, and lots of 'em vote the Republican ticket. They have a weakness for lager beer, pretzels and blood puddings.—They get up their own beer gardens instead of buying whisky of every corner saloon keeper. They generally marry among themselves and wish to have their children taught the German language.

A READY RETORT.—The following is told of one of the speakers the night before the recent election in New Hampshire: The orator, while in his speech, reached a point where he was depicting the results to the country if certain measures should become a part of the law of the land. Said the speaker, "If this should occur, the country would—would—" Here the orator paused for the right word to come to the point. On the instant, a man in the rear, near the door of the hall, shouted out, "What, for heaven's sake, what?" to which the speaker instantly replied, "If my friend will come around to the hotel after the meeting is over, I will tell him confidentially," and then went on with his accustomed fluency.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—There was another flurry of snow at an early hour this morning.

—The Rev. Dr. Mauran and wife, née Brightman, are in town.

—Mr. August Belmont, Jr., of New York, was at the Perry House yesterday.

—The steamer Newport, owing to a high wind and heavy sea, did not leave here on time last night.

—The brig N. H. Clements, 60 days from Dunkirk, France, for New York, arrived here last night.

—The greater part of the snow disappeared during the delightful thaw of yesterday and last evening.

—The new ward lists have been placed in the stores and other places designated by the board of aldermen.

—Clara Rivette, the alleged shop-lifter, secured bail last Saturday, a Providence merchant becoming surety for her appearance.

—The first of the course of united services during Lent will be held in St. John's chapel, Poplar street, this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

—The steamer Old Colony returned from New York at about nine o'clock this morning. Her detention was owing to her not leaving here until a late hour yesterday morning.

—The woman mentioned in the News, as being taken from a low den, is in a very critical condition and has been removed to a private house where she is receiving the best of care.

—A party of young ladies took possession of the Ocean House piazza yesterday afternoon and indulged in an impromptu running match, seeming to enjoy themselves highly in the invigorating exercise.

—A private masquerade party, under the direction of Mr. C. F. Frasch, is to be given tomorrow evening in Harmony hall. Members of the First Artillery orchestra will furnish the music. Hoesli will cater, and a general good time is anticipated.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The effort to form a branch in Newport of the Providence District Society, in connection with the New York Life Insurance Company, culminated Tuesday evening. A meeting was called at the office of Col. Honey. There were present T. M. Seabury, Albert Hammett, W. A. Stedman, Robert S. Franklin, J. P. Sanborn, L. R. Blackman, S. R. Honey, L. D. Davis and S. G. Arnold, of Middletown.

On Mr. Seabury's motion being seconded, W. A. Stedman was unanimously elected chairman of the Board of Resident Trustees, and S. R. Honey deputy chairman.

Mr. William Hodges, the Newport agent of the company, was present and conferred with the Board as to the most efficient means of making the organization a success. Then followed a general discussion of matters incidental to the movement when the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

DEATH OF E. L. BURDICK.

The friends of Mrs. E. L. Burdick were shocked yesterday morning to learn of her death, which occurred yesterday morning at one o'clock, after a very short illness. The deceased was well known in the city and much loved by her friends. She was taken suddenly ill on Thursday night and expired in about two hours. She had been in ill health for some time. The immediate cause of her death, however, was supposed to have been congestion. The funeral services took place from her late residence on Plum street. She was about thirty-five years of age.—[Macon (Ga.,) Telegraph, 22d inst.

POLO PLAYING NEXT SEASON.

The present aspect of the arrangements now in progress in the interest of polo playing in this country leads to the belief that during the coming season many very exciting and successful games of this healthful amusement will be witnessed. The growing popularity of the sport was fully demonstrated last summer and fall by the formation of new clubs and the large attendance of spectators at the contests that came off in New York, Newport, Buffalo, Long Branch, and Woodstock, Conn. The several clubs are already making preparations to continue the amusement when the weather becomes sufficiently pleasant, and to this end have added to their membership rolls that there may be material from which to strengthen their teams. During the latter part of May the Westchester Polo Club will formally open their grounds at Jerome Park. This event is always looked forward to with the keenest anticipation by hundreds of New York gentlemen and their families, and the program of sport on that occasion will be of the most interesting character. Though the list of games that will then be presented cannot now be definitely mentioned, there will be polo playing, matches at lawn tennis, football by college teams and an international lacrosse contest. The arrangements will be such that the several events will follow each other in a manner that will prevent the spectators becoming wearied. The club house of the Westchester Polo Club has been open the entire winter, and during the sleighing carnival several large parties of gentlemen and ladies visited it, and had very enjoyable times. The ballroom was prettily decorated, and music furnished on each of these occasions. The superintendent of the polo grounds, with his family, lives on the premises the year round.

During the early summer the picked team of gentlemen players belonging to the Hurlingham Club, of London, who have decided to visit this country, will arrive at this port. Soon after their arrival a program of the games they hope to play will be determined upon. These contests cannot fail to be exceedingly interesting and spirited, as the expected visitors will surely display much skill. Of all the games they will take part in, however, the international contest will be the most exciting. This event will, doubtless, take place at Newport, and the American team, in all likelihood, who will face the Hurlingham gentlemen will consist of three players from the Westchester Club and a like number from the Buffalo Club. Already those directly interested in this game and their immediate friends are speculating on the probable result, and when it is played there will certainly be an immense gathering to witness it.—[N. Y. Herald, 26th.

The officers of Harvard College propose to allow young women to pass through the different stages of instruction under the tuition of the various professors, but with a distinct organization to be controlled by a board of seven Cambridge ladies. They are not to be considered students of the college, but more properly private pupils of the professors, with all the various branches of the college course open to them.

FALL RIVER.

SAD AFFLICTION.—The News says the many friends of Mrs. Emma E. Hathaway, wife of George T. Hathaway, will regret to learn that she is suffering from a disease of the eyes that threatens a total loss of sight. Mrs. Hathaway submitted to an examination of her eyes last week from Dr. Derby, of Boston, and is now at the Carney Hospital in that city, receiving medical treatment. This affliction, coming after the severe suffering which Mrs. Hathaway has sustained for the past year, makes her case a sad one. We understand the hospital physician wrote to her husband last week in Concord State Prison that his wife would probably be blind.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.—The marriage of Miss Emma J. Remington, daughter of the late Joshua Remington, Esq., to Mr. Wm. Thorpe, took place Tuesday. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride, on Anawan street, by the Rev. Mr. Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. The parlors were elaborately decorated with choice evergreens and flowers, and the bride was attired in a rich white silk dress, with lace trimmings, and her bridal veil surmounted with smilax, orange blossoms and two or three star geraniums. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie C. Holmes and groomsman Mr. Chauncey H. Sears. There were probably one hundred persons present. The caterer on the occasion was Mr. Frasch of Newport. The gifts to the bride included many very valuable and useful articles. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Wm. R. Covel of Newport.

Gideon Cook, a Baptist preacher well known in this vicinity a quarter of a century ago, was a man very eccentric in speech, even to his last earthly moments. A few hours previous to his death his brother, also a preacher, came to his bedside and inquired, "Do you think you are dying, Gideon?" And the reply sharp and quick, came, "Don't know—can't tell—never died yet!"—[Biddeford Miniature.

Uncle Hannibal Hamlin has been hard hit by President Hayes. He is the more surprised at it because Mr. Hayes has never hit any of his assailants in the party before. But, then, no one of them insulted him quite as gratuitously and ostentatiously as did Hamlin.—[Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The last reception of the season was given by President and Mrs. Hayes on Tuesday night. About two thousand invitations were issued and contrary to general expectation, no wine or other spirits were served. The correspondent of the New York World writes:—

The long hall running through the centre of the mansion was decorated on each side with blooming plants. The glass doors were festooned with flags. The chandeliers were literally covered with smilax in bloom. The mantels were banked with moss and studded with camellias, roses, violets, hyacinths, fuchsias and other blossoms. Flags were freely used in all the rooms. Small flags of foreign nations added to the general effect. There are four mantels in the East Room, which was used for the reception of the guests. This gave the florist the opportunity of giving a variety of styles, for each mantel differed from the others. The Green, Blue, and Red parlors were all blooming with exotics. The Marine band of fifty-two pieces was stationed in the entrance hall.

The scene soon became brilliant beyond description. The eight large mirrors opposite each other reflected the numerous lights from the three immense crystal chandeliers, whose prismatic hues shone and sparkled like diamonds. The Diplomatic Corps in court dress, the army and navy officers in their uniforms glittering with bullion, the regal attire of the ladies, all presented a bright picture of our republican court. The long vista from the East Room to the conservatory was magnificent. The banquet was laid in the state as well as in the private dining-room. The tables were laden with every delicacy. The British lion was rampant in something sweet, the unicorn was decidedly palatable, and our own patriotic bird was tamely reposing in the centre of every one of the Dresden china plates. There was a large punch-bowl filled with lemonade.

Mrs. Hayes was dressed in white, which is a favorite color with her for evening dress. The material was gros-grain with overdress and draperies of gauze, embroidered with seed pearls and trimmed with lace and pearls. The only ornament on her head was a perfect japonica. She wore flowers on her bosom and carried a bouquet of choice rose buds and lilies of the valley. Ex-Governor and Mrs. Hartranft; Miss Dickerson, of New York; Mrs. Dr. Davis, of Cincinnati, and Miss Cook, of Chillicothe, a cousin of Mrs. Hayes, are guests at the White House. Mrs. Hartranft wore black velvet and point lace with diamonds. Mrs. Davis wore blue silk with a court train of black silk and a diamond brooch and earrings. Miss Dickerson wore white satin and tulle with pink roses. Miss Cook wore cream-tinted damasse and gauze with scarlet roses and a choice bouquet.

Lady Thornton and her daughters are absent in New York, so that the wife of the Brazilian Minister took precedence and stood next to Mrs. Hayes. She looked very handsome in dead gold silk trimmed with Valenciennes lace. She wore superb ornaments of diamonds. Baroness Blanc wore her wedding dress, white satin embroidered in pearls, with point lace sleeves and overdress. She wore sprays of diamonds in her hair, with necklace, pendants and other ornaments of those precious gems. Countess Lowenhaupt wore white satin embroidered in seed pearls with point lace flounces and white flowers on her head. Mme. de Hegermann wore salmon pink satin with a tunic of point lace; diamond stars sparkled in her dark hair and were worn as necklace and boquet de corsage. Mme. Outrey, wife of the French minister, wore white satin with cascades of point lace; crimson velvet bows fastened with diamonds were worn on the left shoulder and a string of solitaire diamonds on red velvet was worn around her throat. The daughter of the Chief Justice wore white satin with a vest and sleeves of pink satin richly embroidered. This was the most novel and elegant toilet worn. It was the Court dress she wore when presented to Queen Victoria. Mrs. Hiscock, of Syracuse, wore superb dead gold brocade with point lace. The dressing was the most magnificent ever seen in this city. The large rooms, spacious halls and the open conservatory afforded a fine opportunity for the display of dress. The scene was one which will be long remembered by those who witnessed it.

A QUAINT CITY.

In the old Dutch city of Amsterdam all fashionable houses border on a canal. The streets are named from the canal that pass through them. The houses are not built upright, but lean towards one another, as though very polite or systematically drunk. —Their tops often nearly touch over the narrow streets. This is said to shelter them from the storm. In the gable is a large hook for hoisting every conceivable thing into the house: clothes, which are always sent to the country for washing; fruit, butter, coal, turf. Little mirrors jut out from many windows, so that callers may be seen as they approach the door. Owing to the canals the city is very quiet. It is hard to believe that nearly 300,000 people are gathered in the houses which stand along the canals. The streets are paved with stone, as in this country, but there is scarcely any roar of carts or wagons. Boats do duty in their stead. Some of these are propelled by steam; a few flap their chocolate-colored sails, but the most are pushed through the water by means of long poles. These boats bear all manner of freight. Many boats furnish a house for the boatman and his family. They are not simple workshops. There is a kind of homely romance in the boatman's life. By the side of the canals there is generally a narrow carriage road and two footpaths. A line of trees on either side of the paths furnishes a pleasant shade in summer. The aristocrats are careful to walk in the paths next to the canals, as it is a mark of good breeding.

A ROMANCE OF A PHOTOGRAPH.

A story comes from Mason county, Kentucky, which would make a good ground work for a novel. Two or three years ago there lived in the county a man who, though well educated and of good address, had never turned his attention to any useful trade or profession, and consequently earned a living by working for farmers wherever he could find a job. His good education and refined manners, however, made him very popular among the ladies, and when he left a neighborhood he generally took with him photographs of nearly all the girls in the district. At last, after a long experience at farming, and when he had accumulated a fine assortment of ladies' pictures, he became inspired with the conviction that fame and fortune awaited him further West, and, traveling thitherward, he finally pitched his tent at Sedalia, Missouri, a town about 200 miles west of St. Louis. Near this town lived Judge George Heard, a wealthy widower some 60 years of age, who lived upon a fine farm and was considered as one of the most prominent citizens of the county. To this man the wanderer applied for employment, and the Judge, finding him well versed in farming matters, and desiring an overseer, installed him in that capacity. Two or three weeks after his arrival the stranger got out his stock of photographs, and exhibited them to the Judge as samples of Kentucky beauty. The Judge took a passing interest in the collection, but paid little attention to the pictures, until he suddenly came across the

A CARD FROM G. B. REYNOLDS.

Messrs. C. R. Griffing & Co., Boston, General Managers New York Life Ins. Co.,

GENTLEMEN:—Your favor of the 17th inst., has been received with New York draft payable to Phebe A. Bradford in full settlement of policy recently issued by your company on the life of my late partner. Please accept our thanks for your promptness in the matter.

Commending the New York Life to those desiring insurance,

I remain, yours truly,

GARDINER B. REYNOLDS.

NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 21, 1879.

MARRIED.

SHEPARD—RICE—In Brooklyn, 18th inst., by Rev. Mr. Thomas, Lucy Murray Rice to Isaac C. Shepard.

DIED.

FOWLER—In Middletown, 26th inst., Ann Fowler, of this city, in the 82d year of her age. The funeral will take place from the residence of John H. Crosby, No. 44 William street, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

GOGGESHALL—At Summit, N. J., 26th inst., Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Capt. Jeremiah Bliss and wife of William A. Goggeshall, all of Newport.

BURDICK—In Macon, Ga., 21st inst., Mrs. E. L., wife of E. Luther Burdick, formerly of this city, aged 35 years.

IN MEMORIAM—W. K. DELANEY.

Farewell, farewell, instructor of our youth,
No more to see thee with our earthly eyes,
Yet shrined forever is thy worth and truth,
Deep in our inner breasts until time dries
The life-drops in each heart that deifies,
No more to grasp the hand that guided me
O'er rocks and treacherous pitfalls, where to rise
No more great names have fallen, setting free
Their hopes of this world and the world to be.

Then had'st thy faults; what mortal here below
Is pure enough to cast at thee the stone;
Thou had'st thy faults, but now that thou art low,
He's base indeed that would upbraid thy tomb.
Thou'st fallen short of dreams thy youth had known,
Thou'st drank ambition's cup and found it gall,
Yet soothing was the wound where time had flown
Leaving its balm on the first shock that all
Must feel that strive and fail, for niches in Time's hall.

Farewell instructor, scholar, poet, friend,
The grave has closed above thee, and thou art
Now but a memory, yet to the end
Will hold thy place within each pupil's heart,
Alas! too soon old time will change the chart
That's dotted now with pleasant vale and meade
And Time will teach us all a hard'ned part
When gone is joyous youth for power and greed,
Old age upon each heart you name will read.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE.
The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes much farther and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.
☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; its costs but 25. a pound, Cream of Tartar over 80c. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York: Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.
☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorated upon exposure to the atmosphere.

McKEEDY'S CORN SOLVENT.

This simple and Wonderful Remedy has been thoroughly tested, and has never failed when directions have been carried out. Is magical in its effect. Hard corns become soft under one night's action of the Solvent and can be rubbed off in the morning. Soft corns between the toes are removed & all soreness taken away. The solution is so harmless that a child may drink it without danger.

STEAM HEATING.

THE GAS LIGHT COMPANY have added to their Gas Fitting Department the business of heating buildings by steam. The cost of steam apparatus has hitherto proved a bar to its general introduction; but at present, ordinary houses can be fitted with steam appliances for a small advance on the cost of a furnace. The superior healthfulness of steam heat, its admirable distribution, economy of fuel, and perfect self-regulation are points in its favor, which far outweigh the consideration of a small additional expense for the apparatus. Parties building, or desiring to change their mode of heating, are invited to apply at the office of the company, and obtain estimates of cost. Cellars too low to admit a furnace can have our boiler set up in them.

Auction Sales.

By GEORGE H. BURNHAM, Auctioneer,
No. 4 Equitable Building, Providence, R. I.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

At Board of Trade, No. 46 Weybosset St., City of Providence.

BY VIRTUE of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed made by Arthur F. Dexter, with Elizabeth B. Dexter his wife, in release of dower, to Anna M. Greene, dated March 8th, A. D. 1873, and recorded in Volume 17, pages 96 and 97 of the Land Evidence of Portsmouth, in the State of Rhode Island, (the condition of said mortgage having been broken,) the said mortgagee will sell at public auction, at the rooms of the Board of Trade (which rooms will be open to the public during the sale) No. 46 Weybosset street in the city of Providence, in said state, on Wednesday, the 12th day of March, A. D. 1879, at 12 o'clock noon, all the right, title and interest which said Arthur F. Dexter had at the time of the execution of said mortgage (with the inchoate right of dower of his said wife) in and to a certain tract of land in the said town of Portsmouth known as the Island of Patience; said island being washed by the waters of Narragansett Bay and containing two hundred ten acres more or less; and said tract being the same tract conveyed to said Dexter by said Anna M. Greene and one William H. Richards, trustee, by deed bearing even date with said mortgage.

And said mortgagee hereby gives notice that she intends to bid for and upon said property at said sale thereof. ANNA M. GREENE, feb17 Mortgagee.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

By virtue of power of sale, contained in a certain mortgage deed, made and executed on the fifth day of October, A. D. 1874, by Margaret G. Drew of Boston, of the county of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to Lucius D. Davis, which mortgage is recorded with the Land Evidence of Jamestown, in Book No. 7, pages 282 etc., and which was assigned by the said Lucius D. Davis, to the late George Popple, late of Newport, deceased:

I will sell at public auction on the premises in Jamestown, on Saturday, the eight day of February, 1879, at 12 o'clock noon, all of the right, title and interest, which the said Margaret G. Drew, had in and to that certain parcel of land, situate in that part of Jamestown, known as Cunanicut Park, being lots numbered (13) thirteen, (14) fourteen and (15) fifteen, on a plat of the said Park, made by John H. Mullin, and on file in the office of the town clerk of the town of Jamestown, with all of the buildings and improvements on the said lots. The condition of said mortgage deed having been broken. The undersigned hereby gives notice to all persons interested in the equity of redemption of the above described premises, that the heirs at law of the said George Popple, or some one of them intend to bid at the sale thereof.

JOHN M. POPPLE,

Administrator of the estate which was of George Popple.

The above advertised sale stands adjourned to SATURDAY, March 1st, 1879, at 12 o'clock noon, then to take place on the premises.

Per order, J. M. POPPLE, feb8 Administrator.

OGDEN FARM.

In addition to its BUTTER BUSINESS the Ogden Farm is prepared to deliver daily,

ALDERNEY MILK.

Customers desiring it can always have the milk from one and the same cow, and from such an one as they may select from the herd of thoroughbred Jerseys. I shall also deliver daily,

SWEET SKIMMED MILK,

From which the cream has been taken in a COOLEY CREAMER. By this new system the milk has to be set only 12 hours, is totally excluded from all atmospheric impurities, and will retain its sweetness sufficient for all family uses. The choicest butter is now being made by this system, and the milk is fast being adopted for family use.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1879.

FOUR YEARS OLD.

Bright in the early morning,
His brown eyes open wide,
And there's never a wink more slumber
To be thought of at his side.

Awake, from his hair all a-tumble
To the tips of his springing toes,
Into his clothes he dances,
And down to his breakfast goes.

Then out with his little barrow,
And where, oh! where is his spade?
Today his corn must be planted,
And all of his garden made.

Don't speak to him—proud young farmer,
Half lost in his big straw hat:
If you dare to suggest an errand,
Not a minute has he for that!

Ten minutes, and "Where is my hammer
And nails?—drate big une," he calls,
Lo! his garden is turned to a cellar,
And now he must put up his walls!

What, you, my brave young farmer!
"Oh no, I'm a builder now,
I build big barn and houses;
Come out, and I'll show you how."

Soon starting, he hears the oxen
Dragging the big hay-cart;
And, houses and barns forgotten,
Away he flies like a dart.

"Please, Hugh, let me be driver;
I'll keep right here by the side."
So, whip on his shoulder, he marches
With more than a soldier's pride.

Now back, calling, "Mamma, mamma,
Here's a tummin' hop-stool for you;
'Twas growing close up by the fountain,
Oh dear! now what shall I do?

Why, there is my fast, wild Rollo—
Whoa! who'll have a ride with me?
This small one's my work-horse, 'Daisy;'
He's steady and old, you see."

So, hour after hour, through the daytime,
He works and plays with a will;
The brown little hands always busy,
The quick little feet never still,

Until, when at last the evening
Drops down like a soothing chime,
A tired little voice comes calling,
"Please, isn't it story-time?"

Then, two dear arms, all caressing,
Are round me, and sweet, low words
I hear—as gentle and tender
As the cooing good-night of birds.

And he, the bright eyes half-closing,
With kisses on cheek and brow,
Says softly, "Good-night! I love you!
I'm only your little boy now."

—[St. Nicholas.

SUNDRIES.

A shocking life—That led by an electric eel.

Murder, like the knees of a boy's pants, will out.—[Utica Observer.

Irish Car Driver (talking to the new agent about the violent death of the last one)—"Begorra, the wonder is he wasn't shot long before; but shure, they say, what's iverybody's business is nobody's business."—[Punch.

Eli Perkins, it is announced, has been engaged to tell twenty-seven hundred lies in twenty-seven hundred quarters of a minute. It will be safe to wager heavy odds that he will perform the feat and have twenty-six hundred quarters of a minute to spare.—[Norristown Herald.

An indifferent actor was playing in Othello at the Dunedin Theatre. When he came to the passage, "O that men should put an enemy in their mouths to steal away their brains!" a stentorian voice roared from the gallery: "All right, old man, drink away; you're safe."

"Hound," said the schoolmaster, "is what you hear. For instance, you cannot feel a sound." "Oh, yes, you can!" said a smart boy. "John Wilkins," retorted the pedagogue, "How do you make that out? What sound can you feel?" "A sound thrashing," quickly replied the smart boy.

A school-girl of tender years thus writes to a bosom fiend: "Dear Susa—I shan't attend school agin until I Get some new cuffs, collars and Jewelry—dear Mama agrees with me that it is my Dooty to take the shine off that Upstart Mary Jones, and I'll do it if I never learn nothing."

The venerable wife of a celebrated physician, one day casting her eyes out of the window, observed her husband in the funeral procession of one of his patients, at which she exclaimed, "I do wish my husband would keep away from such processions. It appears so much like a tailor carrying home his work."

FARM AND GARDEN.

Pruning Trees.—Set a green hand to prune trees where limbs of any size are to be removed, and the chances are, ten to one, that he will commence at the top and saw through the limb until it falls of its own weight, tearing down the bark and wood, inflicting a great, ugly wound, which may require years to heal, and which, if not carefully protected from the weather, will cause such decay as to destroy the tree. The method commonly recommended to prevent injury is, to begin at the bottom and cut half way through, and then finish at the top; or, with very large limbs, to have them supported by a crotched pole or pitch-fork held by an assistant below; but we have found a better plan, and quite as easy, to be to make two cuts, the first at a convenient distance, say a foot, from the point where we wish the limb removed. This short stump can, except in the case of very large limbs, be easily held in one hand, while the final cut is made with the other.—[Fruit Recorder.

Cotton Cloth for Hot Beds.—A successful New York market gardener states that he uses cotton cloth, at a cost of one-eighth that of glass, for more than three-fourths of his hot beds, and although not so good for the earlier beds, it is preferred for all later ones. It is prepared by making the cloth covers a few inches wider and longer than the frame, hemmed, and provided with small curtain-rings, fifteen inches apart, around the border, stoutly sewed on; and by hooking over nails the cloth is drawn air-tight over the frame. One quart of linseed oil, one ounce of pulverized sugar of lead, and four ounces of pulverized resin are heated, dissolved and thoroughly mixed in an iron kettle, and a coat applied while hot to the upper side of the cloth. This renders it tight and nearly transparent.

A STO-RY FOR GOOD LIT-TLE GIRLS.

Ma-ry was a good girl. She loved her dear broth-ers and sis-ters. I will tell you one nice thing she did. Her moth-er was ve-ry sick. She had to stay in her bed all night and all day. Ma-ry's fa-ther told her one day, "Ma-ry, your moth-er is too sick to leave her bed. You must be a moth-er to to your lit-tle broth-ers and sis-ters." And Ma-ry said, "Yes, pa-pa." So her fa-ther gave her mon-ey. He told her to buy bread and meat, and see that all had e-nough to eat. Ma-ry took the mon-ey. When her fa-ther had gone to his work, she called her broth-ers and sis-ters to-gether. She said, "You like can-dy and cakes and dolls and ba-by rags. You shall have can-dy and cakes and dolls and ba-by rags. And the children cried, "Oh, that will be so nice!" Then Ma-ry took some rye-meal and made some nice pud-ding. With the mon-ey her fa-ther had giv-en her, she bought candy and cakes and dolls ba-by rags. The next day they had pud-ding for break-fast. For din-ner they had pud-ding. They had pud-ding for sup-per. They had pud-ding three times a day for two weeks. When their moth-er got well, they did not tease her for can-dy and cakes and dolls and ba-by rags. No, they behaved like good chil-dren. And when meal-time came, they did not turn up their lit-tle no-ses at what was set be-fore them, as I have seen some chil-dren do. They ate of what their dear moth-er of-fered them. Ma-ry was com-pli-ment-ed on her man-agement of chil-dren. Those chil-dren were nev-er af-ter-wards known to cry for rye pud-ding.

A TRUE GENTLEMAN.

"I beg your pardon," and with a smile and a touch of his hat, Harry Edmon handed to an old man, against whom he had accidentally stumbled, the cane which he had knocked from his hand. "I hope I did not hurt you. We were playing too roughly."

"Not a bit!" said the old man cheerily. "Boys will be boys, and it is best they should be. You didn't harm me."

"I am glad to hear it;" and lifting his hat again, Harry turned to join the playmates with whom he had been frolicking at the time of the accident.

"What do you raise your hat to that old fellow for?" asked his companion, Charley Gray. "He's only Giles, the huckster."

"That makes no difference," said Harry; "the question is not whether he is a gentleman, but whether I am one."

Insurance

FIRE INSURANCE!

Policies on all descriptions of property issued at short notice and at as low rates as practicable. Persons desiring to effect insurance will find it for their interest to consult the undersigned as to companies and prices. All losses settled at this agency and paid promptly. L. D. DAVIS.

INSURANCE

AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE

CAUSED BY

ACCIDENT, INCENDIARISM, LIGHTNING

Or any Other Cause.

I REPRESENT the oldest company in America, and also the largest company in the United States, together with other standard American and European institutions. The Ætna of Hartford alone has paid over $45,000,000 in losses, and has now $1,000,000 assets in hand.

Insurance in such companies, with ample means, and an established reputation for fair dealing, is worth much more than in any of the numerous weaklings that letter along for a while and then go down. About fifty such companies have failed during the last year, and as many others are on the way to ruin.

The rates in these first-class companies are no higher than in the small and doubtful concerns.

Farm property taken very low for three or five years.

All losses settled at this office. For terms call on, or address by mail the undersigned at the office of this paper. L. D. DAVIS.

and need money more now than I do the carriages, I have all kinds of carriages on hand, except hearses—that stock has given out. I have several first rate second-hand phaeton top buggies, which I will sell cheap for cash (as New Years bills are like ghosts, in the distance approaching) and we don't want our friends, who have given us the usual credit, to go away with a sorrowful countenance, and therefore will sell all my stock in trade, which is large. Over one hundred different carriages cheap. Several good winter carriages on hand, not now, but good for work.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
Great Through Line
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE.

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

CONSTRUCTION AND EQUIPMENT

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line will illustrate the far-seeing an liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM of SAFETY SIGNALS,
Janney Coupler Buffer and Platform,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

PULLMAN PALACE CARS

Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis, WITHOUT CHANGE
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but once change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grand car, beauty, and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A Pleasing and Memorable Experience.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.
